

WHEN IN

Hong Kong

This bustling city mixes modernity and tradition in equal measure. Come for the fall auctions at Christie's and Sotheby's; stay for the dim sum and nightlife. By Zoe Li

TERESITA FERNANDEZ

The New York-based artist's debut exhibition in Hong Kong is on view at Lehmann Maupin's outpost in the city and features exquisite large-scale works composed of India ink on gold-chromed panels, including a stunning 11½-foot triptych. An equally-anticipated exhibition from Korean artist Do Ho Suh opens next month.
